DEMAND FOR BOCHEFORT'S ARRAHONMENT.

In the Corps Legislatif the debate on the arraignment of Deputy Heary Rochefort was opened. From the beginning of the sitting the Chamber was crowded with speciators, and all the deputies were present. Rochefort occupied his usual seat, and all the members of the Cabinet were present.

M. Estancelin opened the discussion with the proposition made on the part of the Left Centre. He said they felt confident of the strength of the Minstry, and would advise that prosecution against the offending deputy-be instituted.

Ollivier replied that the Government could not accept this proposal. He demanded a vote of the Chamber on the question as issued, otherwise the Ministry could not continue in office. This declaration was received with appliance from all parts of the hall.

year 1803, Demetia Agricoff Slaviasky, director of the Imperial Opera at St. Petersburg, was traveling in the Province of Odessa, Russis. While sojourning in a small town he atterded a concert given for the benedit of the poor of the place. Among the artistes who "sasisted" at the affair was a beautiful and interesting young lady named Nodefa Savinsky. The strength and richness of the girl's voice at once attracted the admiration of the impressario. He made proposals to her on the spot to accompany him to St. Petersburg. She accepted his ofter and went with him to the capital. Here, during the first winter, she was all the "rage," attracting general admiration. After a long season, Slavinsky prevailed upon her to sing in the United States, in conjunction with other members of a troupe which he had fermed. They arrived in New York in August of 1800. The first appearance of the lady was at Steinway Hall. Her debut was a signal success. While here her many charms of

COURIER-JOURNAL

An Organ of National Democratic Government Free Trade, Progressive Commerce, West ern and Southern Domestic Economy, Civilization, and Peace.

HE approaching advent of a new year furnishes an occasion for pla-cing before the notice of the public in a full and compensions form in a full and compensions for the plans and prospects of the COURGER-JOURNAL for the immediate statement and also, for explaining somewhat of its character and antocedents as a popular newspaper.

ITS SPHERE OF USEFULNESS.

HE COURIER JOURNAL to a consolidated edition of three of the oldest and most widely-circulated newspapers in the Union lated newspapers in the Union viz: The Louisville Journal the Louisville Courten, and the Louisville Democrat. The consolidation dates from the 8th of November, 1868. No paper in the West or South is read by a larger audience, and no paper in America has a range of circulation which is so extensive. The Counter-Journal goes to every State and Territory of the Union, and to every city and almost every town in Europe. It has a greater circle of readers in Tennessee, Texas, Kentucky, Arkansus, Mississippi, and Indiana than any paper published in those States. In Georgia, Alabama, Illinois, and Missouri it is popularly known. Its patronage is every day increasing. Its sphere of influence

ITS CHARACTER AND CONTENTS

HE COURIER-JOURNAL is printed on one of the largest newspaper sheets in America, and its covered by able and brilliant leaders upon current affairs, political and social; by witty and pungent paragraphs; by careful literary criticisms and genial every-day essays; by full and faithful reviews of by exact, complete and reliable compilations of the freshest news, foreign and do-mestic, all furnished by the largest and most efficient corps of writers, reporters and correspondents ever employed upon a press of the South or the West. It is a text-book for the politician. It is a hand-book for the farmer. It is a record for the CIT Hard. Manual Surgeon, Ramanay.

This will certify that I am personally sequented with H. M. Freeman, and am cognisms to the facts as cet forth in the above statement, and the several persona whose signatures are thereuno attached are all known to me.
